

HOLD THE DATE

12th Annual Delaware Valley Flotilla
Presidents' Day Training Weekend
Friday to Sunday, February 16-18, 2018

Come to the facilities of the Pine Tree Environmental Center run by the Garden State Council, with cabins, conference center and dining hall, situated in a remote area of the beautiful Pine Barrens of New Jersey. Our talented committee will once again offer courses for advancement and education based on the Sea Scout Manual, using volunteer instructors, both adult and youth, to present high caliber sessions, with lots of hands-on learning.

Watch for the Boarding Manual to be posted on the NER website soon at www.nerseascout.org/. Register early; do not be disappointed.

Cost will be $40 for those who register before February 1, $45 after.

For more information now to help plan your Ship's participation, contact Flotilla Commodore Ann Newman at newskipper@aol.com or Event Chair John Grauvogel at doghousepa@comcast.net.
